In support of this Motion, the Parties state as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. On November 9, 2011, Robert E. 2. On September 5, 2012, Robert E. Cooper, Jr., the Attorney General and Reporter for the State of Tennessee filed a Complaint seeking to have a Receiver appointed for ElderTrust of Florida, Inc. in a case styled State of Tennessee ex rel. Robert Cooper, Jr. v. ElderTrust of Florida, Inc., Case No. 12-1283-III, Chancery Court of Davidson County, Tennessee. James A. Skinner, individually and as President of Cumberland & Ohio Co. of Texas was appointed as Receiver on September 6, 2012.

3. The Receiver filed a Complaint on behalf of SeniorTrust and the LLCs of which SeniorTrust is the sole member styled SeniorTrust of Florida, Inc.; SeniorTrust of Chanute, LLC; SeniorTrust of Charlevoix, LLC; SeniorTrust of Columbia, LLC; SeniorTrust of Council Grove, LLC; SeniorTrust of Haysville, LLC; SeniorTrust of Joplin, LLC; SeniorTrust of Larned, LLC; SeniorTrust of Sedgwick, LLC; SeniorTrust of Town & Country, LLC; and, Standifer Place, LLC v. National Health Investors, Inc. and National Healthcare Corporation, Case No. 12-1275-III, Chancery Court of Davidson County, Tennessee (the “ST Proceeding”). In their Complaint, Plaintiffs seek among other things, damages from NHI and NHC and the reformation of their contracts. NHI and NHC filed their answers denying any liability to Plaintiffs, and also asserted certain counterclaims against SeniorTrust.

4. The Receiver filed a Complaint on behalf of ElderTrust and the LLCs of which ElderTrust is the sole member styled ElderTrust of Florida, Inc.; CFN Manchester/Center, LLC; CFN Manchester/North, LLC; CFN Manchester/East, LLC; John Adams Nursing Home, LLC; Longmeadow of Taunton, LLC; CFM Buckley/North, LLC; and CFM Buckley/South, LLC v. National Health Investors, Inc. and National Healthcare Corporation, Case No. 13-60-III, Chancery Court of Davidson County, Tennessee (the “ET Proceeding”). In their Complaint, Plaintiffs seek among other things, damages from NHI and NHC and the reformation of their contracts. NHI and NHC filed their answers denying any liability to Plaintiffs, and also asserted certain counterclaims against ElderTrust.

5. The Parties have engaged in substantial discovery since the filing of the complaints in both the ST Proceeding and the ET Proceeding.

6. The Parties began mediation on February 5, 2013. Representatives of the Office of the Tennessee Attorney General (“OTAG”) participated in all aspects of the mediation. The Mediator was Carlos Gonzalez, Esq., an attorney practicing in Atlanta, Georgia, who was recommended to the parties by the OTAG. The mediation concluded on April 18, 2013. Mr. Gonzalez billed 287 hours. The fees and expenses of the mediator were borne by SeniorTrust, ElderTrust, NHI, and NHC.

7. SeniorTrust, ElderTrust, NHI, NHC, and the OTAG have agreed to settle their disputes, subject to approval of this Court, on the terms and conditions contained in the settlement agreement, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Settlement Agreement”). The terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement are incorporated into this Motion by reference. The Settlement Agreement provides, among other terms, for the disbursement of certain court accounts to the Receiver, for the transfer of certain additional funds between NHC, NHI, and the Receiver, for the defense and indemnification of certain claims, and for mutual releases. The OTAG has determined that the Settlement Agreement is in the public interest.

8. The Settlement Agreement resolves all outstanding disputes between the Parties and allows the Receiver to wind up the nonprofits’ affairs. The Receiver and the OTAG will then, subject to public input, make recommendation to the Court for distribution of the remaining charitable assets for the benefit of citizens of the State of Tennessee.

RELIEF REQUESTED

9. Accordingly, for the reasons stated in this Motion, and with the consent of the OTAG, the Parties request that this Court enter an Order approving the Settlement Agreement among the Plaintiffs, the OTAG, NHI, and NHC. The Parties also request that the Order approving the Settlement Agreement be entered as a final judgment under Rule 54.02.

CONCLUSION

10. A proposed Order granting the relief requested herein is being filed herewith.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated above, the Parties pray this Court grant this Motion in its entirety and enter the attached Order. The Parties pray for such other relief as this Court deems appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

1. This Agreement will be effective on the first day (the "Effective Date") on which the following conditions have been satisfied: (a) the Agreement has been signed by all Parties, and (b) the Agreement has been approved in a final, non-appealable court order issued by the Chancery Court for the State of Tennessee, 20th Judicial District, that contains the provisions described in this Agreement (the "Order").

2. Once all Parties have signed this Agreement and it has been filed with the Court, the fact of the Agreement will be announced through a single press release to be agreed upon by all the Parties and issued jointly, with any disputes over the content of that press release to be resolved by Mediator Carlos González. No party will make a public statement concerning the resolution of this dispute until after that press release is issued.

16. The terms of this Agreement will not be confidential.

17. This Agreement resolves through compromise disputed claims and assertions. No party by entering into this Agreement admits any liability or concedes the validity of any claim, defense, or assertion.
